bayarea
computer support

Network Support

Looking for a more effective way to manage your organization's IT system availability, resources, services and budget?

We help organize, plan, develop, integrate and manage all the complex, industry-specific applications and software that are vital to the success of your business.

Network Support Services specialize in the installation and maintenance of computer networks based on the latest technology. We will supply, install and configure a new network expertly designed to meet the requirements of your business using cutting edge technology which permit even more flexibility to meet your needs.

Bay Area Computer Support is providing a very cost effective and timely solution to the remotely located organizations and whose business is very time critical.

Application Monitoring
Performance Monitoring Services
Event Viewer
Windows Server Updates
Workstation Updates
Network Security
Firewall Protection
Perimeter Security
Virus Protection and Assessment
Spyware Protection
Popup blocking
Spam Filtering

510-789-2000

bayarea
computer support