bayarea
computer support

Software as a Service

Software as a Service (SaaS) solutions are billed to clients on a subscription basis.

In Saas, Software can be rented rather than purchased. Instead of buying software and paying for periodic upgrades.

SaaS is subscription based, and all upgrades are provided during the term of the subscription. When the subscription period expires, the software is no longer valid.

bayarea
computer support